Invitation

Dear :

It's our great honor to invite you to attend the Shanghai Memory: Exhibition of Jewish History in World War II at 2:00PM, Thursday, May 16, 2013, and the Exhibition will be held at the first-floor hall of Administration Building of Shanghai Finance University.

In the Exhibition assembled by the Florence & Laurence Spungen Family Foundation, precious historical relics including letters, post cards, and currency telling the story of victims during World War II will be displayed.

Although the exhibition has a focus on the Jewish "Holocaust" the exhibit also highlights material related to non-Jewish people persecuted as well; Jehovah Witnesses, Gypsies, non-Jewish Polish/German resistance groups and even handicapped/retarded German people.

In conjunction with the exhibition, the Shanghai Memory Medal will be launched. We sincerely invite you to join us to touch the tenacious survival of racial history in persecution and escape and witness the mutual respect and support between Jewish and Chinese people from Shanghai perspective. Meanwhile, you will parse the human nature and inspect human existence value and significance from the historical memory.

We are looking forward to your support and participation!
