Stories of personal courage, resistance, and heroism

A CANDLES Holocaust Museum initiative presents

Healing: Rwanda 20 Years Later

with Emmanuel Habimana

Emmanuel Habimana is a filmmaker, public speaker, and activist from Kigali, Rwanda.

His work began as a youth activist in Kigali, where he collaborated with peers to assist other orphans of the 1994 Tutsi genocide. A genocide orphan himself, in 2010 Emmanuel began co-directing Komora: To Heal, a documentary about the orphan survivors of the genocide. He has since traveled to the United States, where he has worked on the production of Komora and undertaken nationwide speaking tours. His 2014 tour focuses on Rwanda's achievements in healing as the world approaches the 20-year anniversary of the genocide.
