"A Lady Alone": Elizabeth Blackwell-First American Woman Doctor

Portrayed by Linda Gray Kelley

After being rejected by all the leading medical schools, Elizabeth Blackwell was accepted by Geneva Medical College, where she graduated first in her class in 1849, becoming the first woman to graduate from medical school. In addition to starting medical schools for women, she was a social activist working to make the lives of women and children better. Her dream of becoming the first woman surgeon disappeared when she lost an eye. A riveting and inspirational story.

Professional Storytellers—

Mary Lou Williams & Tamara V. Green

Stories are the universal language. Learn about the storytelling world, telling spellbinding stories in the process, such as a nostalgic love story that takes place during World War II; a humorous folk tale about two traveling preachers and their insatiable appetite for fried chicken; a fractured fairy tale, (a retelling of a well known classic from a modern perspective); and West African folk tale about courtship and marriage. You will be entertained as well as informed.

"Fifteen Florida Cemeteries: Strange Tales Unearthed"

Lecture by Author Lola Haskins

Many people live in Florida for years without knowing anything about its history. Come hear a lively talk about fifteen cemeteries around the state which, besides intriguing historical tidbits, will send you away with some good stories about people buried here. For example Napoleon's nephew, a ghost dog, Imogene (a murder mystery), Karl Wallenda of circus fame, the Cuban cartoonist who drew 'Spy vs. Spy' for Mad Magazine, and a Key West doctor who dug up the woman he loved and lived with her for seven years.
