THE FLORENCE AND LAURENCE SPUNGEN FAMILY FOUNDATION

Chicagoland Jewish High School To Host Rare
Holocaust Exhibit & Mengele Twin Survivors

“The Nazi Scourge: Postal Evidence of the Holocaust and the Devastation in Europe.”

Witness over 300 artifacts and meet directly with Mengele twin survivors.

Experience the destruction of Europe through the eyes of some of the people whose lives were forever affected by the Holocaust. In collaboration with the Florence and Laurence Spungen Family Foundation, witness this award-winning collection of World War II postal artifacts related to the Nazis' attempt to exterminate Jews and other individuals.

Sunday, April 10

Tour of exhibit from 1:00 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Exhibit Presentation

Danny Spungen, curator of the collection, will host two presentations that will bring life to this unique collection.

Showing of Forging Dr. Mengele at 2:30 p.m. & 3:30 p.m.

Film Presentation

Please join us for two showings of the 45 minute documentary, Forgiving Dr. Mengele. Copies of the extended 80 minute film will be available for a donation of $36 during the exhibit. All proceeds will go directly to CANDLES Holocaust Museum in Terre Haute, IN and to the Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center in Skokie.

Mengele twin survivors from 4:30 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

Survivor presentations

Following this rare exhibit, CJHS is honored to welcome Eva Kor and Helen Rappaport, Mengele twin survivors. Both survivors will share their personal stories and experiences from Auschwitz Concentration Camp after the showing of the movie, Forgiving Dr. Mengele.
