Concentration Camp Dachau

Even from the dismal confines of Dachau, prisoners did what they could to brighten the lives of their loved ones, fortifying their resolve to persevere until the eventual defeat of Nazism. Johann Golla drew a colorful Easter design on this April 18, 1941, letter to his wife and family.

