

Persecution and Flight of Czech Jews

Above: The names of two Jewish lawyers were struck through on an envelope sent registered on September 1, 1941, at Vyškov, Bohemia-Moravia, by a Czech lawyer who had taken over the Jews' office and phone number. Below: A January 19, 1940, registered air mail letter from the Prague Jewish community to the Society for the Protection of Jewish Immigrants in Santiago, Chile, was opened and inspected by currency control at Prague, again by a British censor at Bermuda, transited Baltimore on February 28, and arrived at Santiago on March 1.

