

Who will be for me?

"Never Forget" - Holocaust Remembrance Week

Sunday, October 21- Wednesday, October 24

Sponsored By:

With special thanks to Yosefa Macnaughton

"I swore never to be silent whenever and wherever human beings endure suffering and humiliation. We must take sides. Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim. Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented."

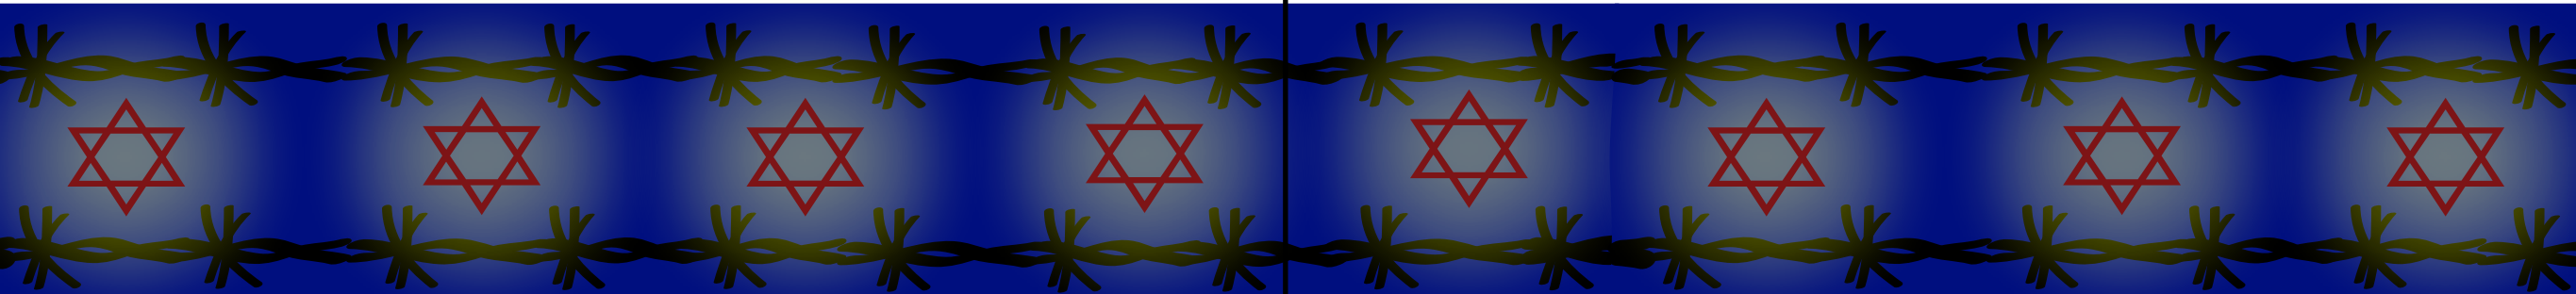

-Eli Wiesel

"If we bear all this suffering and if there are still Jews left, when it is over, then Jews, instead of being doomed, will be held up as an example."

-Anne Frank

"First they came for the communists, and I did not speak out—because I was not a communist;
Then they came for the trade unionists, and I did not speak out—because I was not a trade unionist;
Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out—because I was not a Jew;
Then they came for me—
and there was no one left to speak out for me."

-Pastor Martin Niemöller

Hillel/Candles Presents: Visit Auschwitz with Eva Kor Scholarship

A $ 1000 scholarship will be given towards a $3500 summer trip to Auschwitz and Poland with Eva Kor. The scholarship, presented by Hillel and Candles, and made available by the Spungen Foundation, will be awarded to the winner of an essay competition open to students in grades 8-12, college, and professors and religious leaders. The essays must include how Eva Kor's talk influenced their thinking. Incorporation of experiences at the other events in the program are encouraged. Final rules are available at the program and through www.iuhillel.org.

Eva Kor

Eva Kor and her identicle twin Miriam survived the deadly genetic experiments conducted by "the angel of death", Josef Mengele in the death camp of Auschwitz. He injected deadly chemicals and performed horrific experimental surgeries on approximately 3,000 twins in his "studies".

Today Eva Kor resides in Terra Haute, Indiana where she founded the CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education center. She believes in the power of forgiveness and has lived the rest of her life peacefully by forgiving her own captors. Eva Kor is a revered public speaker, a true hero and an inspiration to the Jewish people.

Danny Spungen

In 2007, Danny Spungen, collector and philatelist, on behalf of the Spungen foundation, acquired one of the best known collections of Holocaust materials related to stamps, covers, postcards, letters, bank note forgeries, and manuscripts from concentration camps & Jewish ghettos. The collection of more than 250 pieces is arranged into 10 sections (or Frames) each containing images and descriptive text describing both the documents in the collection as well as the context in which the documents were created and used.

Not only will Danny Spungen be giving a public viewing of his unique collection, he will also be talking to Kelley School of Business students about his experiences in the business world.
